July 25, 1928.

COLLIER RECORDS

Thomas Dunn, who married Elizabeth Collier, was the son of Thomas Dunn a Revolutionary soldier. He died in Oglethorpe County, Georgia, in 1842. His will was dated January 11, 1842, and same was probated March 12, 1842. Book D. Page 86, Ordinary's Office, Oglethorpe County, Georgia. He had the following children: Ishmeal; John Vines; Thomas; Nancy; Priscilla; Sarah; and Mary; also a grandson. Thomas Dunn did not mention his wife in his will, so evidently she died before he did.

He had the following earmarks registered, "A swallow fork in each ear under keel in left ear and over keel in right ear". Deed Book C. Page 366, Clerk's Office, Oglethorpe County, Georgia.

William and Sarah Collier, son and daughter of Vines Collier, deeded to Robert McAlpin for 100 pounds sterling 287½ acres land Sept. 20, 1790. Recorded Nov. 15, 1791. Book 1 Page 526, Clerk's Office, Green Co., Georgia.

James Collier, son of Vines Collier who died in 1790, purchased from David Adams, Tax Collector, 320 acres of land June 13, 1795. Book C. Clerk's Office, Green Co., Ga.

Thomas Collier purchased from John White 292 acres of land Feb. 13, 1805. Witness: William S. Smith, Charles Collier, Gene Fitzpatrick. Book 4, Page 373, Clerk's Office, Green Co., Ga.

Charles Collier purchased of John Panter 150 acres of land on the Oconee River Feb. 17, 1808. Book 4, Page 670, Clerk's Office, Green Co., Ga.

Charles W. Collier purchased from Thomas Collier 192 acres of land on the Oconee River, April 4, 1810. Book EE Page 172, Clerk's Office, Green Co., Ga.

Charles W. Collier sold lands in June 1813 on the Oconee River. Witness: William King, Daniel Jett, A. S. Johnston. Book EE Page 308-327, Clerk's Office Green County, Ga.

Charles W. Collier purchased 4 town lots in Greensboro, Ga., June 4, 1816. Book FF, Page 166, Clerk's Office, Green Co., Ga.

Charles W. Collier purchased 402 acres of land from Henry Hays, Feb. 12, 1814. Book FF Page 202, Clerk's Office, Green Co., Ga. (This land was on Richland Creek 1 mile east of Greensboro, Ga.)

Chloe C. Collier purchased 4 town lots in Greensboro, Ga. She was evidently the wife of Edward W. Collier.

Charles W. Collier deeded to the Trustees of the University of Ga. for $5,000.00 three lots of land on Richland Creek, Green Co., Ga. Book FF, Page 99, Clerk's Office, Green Co., Ga.

Charles W. Collier purchased from John Colby 100 acres of land on Richland Creek, July 3, 1817. Book FF, Page 345, Clerk's Office, Green County, Ga.

Martha Collier, widow of Charles W. Collier, made a contract before her marriage to Richland Asbury to retain full control of her property after her marriage. Nov. 12, 1818. Book GG, Page 72, Clerk's Office, Green Co., Ga.

Thomas Collier witnessed a deed of Charles W. Collier Dec. 20, 1814. Book HH, Page 28, Clerk's Office, Green Co., Ga. Thomas was a brother of Charles W. Collier and son of Vines.

James Collier deeded to Edwin Collier 213 acres of land June 7, 1830. Book KK, Page 287, Clerk's Office, Green Co., Ga.

Thomas Collier sold land to Green Moore, 575 acres, Sept. 28, 1830. Book LL, Page 108, Clerk's Office, Green Co., Ga.

Augustus Collier seems to have purchased 205 acres of land June 10, 1833. Book LL, Page 288, Clerk's Office, Green Co., Ga.

Chloe C. Collier purchased one store house and lot in Greensboro, Ga., April 19, 1834. Book LL, Page 385, Clerk's Office Green Co., Ga.

In Madision, Morgan County, Ga., there appears of record a will of William Collier of S. C. to his daughter, Beatrice, and his nephews William Edward, Collier* William, Collier* and William Wyatt Hill, Oct. 28, 1803. Will Book 1, Page 159, Ordinary's Office, Morgan County, Ga.

William H. Collier, temporarily residing in Atlanta, Ga., made a will appointing his wife, Fannie E. Collier, executrix without bond, and after her death his son, William L. Collier. June 4, 1907. Will Book E, Page 76, Ordinary's Office Morgan, Co., Ga.

There are no Colliers residing in Morgan County at the present time.